We need to testify at the upcoming Palmer City Council meeting on issuing a mask mandate. It is imperative that we speak up, the opposition most certainly will. It is definitely possible for the city council to pass this mandate, but they need public testimony to support that decision, that's wh... See More

Just wanted to give an update: I sent the following email to the mayor yesterday, along with a draft ordinance for a mask mandate in Palmer. She scheduled a special meeting, which I believe will be Wednesday but I will let you all know for sure when I hear certain. Open Meetings Act requires specific notice of meetings so that’s why it’s not until

I see here there is a fantastic compilation of businesses that are on board with requiring a mask to conduct business during the increasingly widespread pandemic. I wonder if anyone would be willing to draft a letter of support to be sent to the Palmer City Council to be read into the record for Wednesday night's meeting in which these businesses can choose to sign on in support? Local businesses standing up together to protect our employees and our customers instead of kowtowing to divisive politics may go a long way to making some headway in slowing this virus on our community...

Attached is the "finalized" version of the local COVID compliant businesses. (I put finalized in quotes, because I imagine it will continue to evolve.)

If anyone would like to volunteer to call some of these businesses and confirm the information, that would be awesome!

In the meantime, I think we can begin circulating this document. As it gets exposure, I'm sure others, including businesses, will have information to add.

This could also be a good resource for writing testimony for the upcoming City of Palmer meeting regarding the proposed mask ordinance. I know many of the businesses on this list have been doing just fine - even thriving - while enforcing their own mask mandates, which counteracts the argument that a mandate will hurt small businesses.

Andrea Hackbarth, you could put my clinic on there as well. Was thinking this was for retail.

Jill, I assume you wear and require masks. Anything else I should note?

Andrea Hackbarth, we do wear and require masks. We are happy to deliver purchased supplements to your car and of course we have sinks and hand sanitizer.
